

Teacher's Aide

Call ID: NAD-MNTC-000261-2024

Where: Choteau, United States

When: Aug 18, 2024 - Jun 1, 2025

Summary

Teton Adventist Christian School, part of the Montana Conference, is seeking candidates for a task force teacher aide in a one-teacher school for the 2024-2025 school year. Teton Adventist Christian School (TACS) is located in Choteau, Montana and is committed to inspiring and cultivating excellence and the desire to learn. The school offers grades K-8. The aide will primarily be assisting the teacher with instruction of the kindergarten and lower grade students, some assistance with upper grades and general school duties is utilized as well. The school consists of two large classrooms and is attached to the church building. The school also uses the church's kitchen and other rooms for learning and recreation as needed. The school rooms have recently been updated before the 2022 school year, as it has reopened after being closed since 1998. A large playground will be installed this spring/summer and we recently up a hoop house for agriculture lessons that are being implemented for the 2023-24 year. We have 25 students this year and anticipate continued growth for next year! Montana has a large variety of environments and adventure seekers will find many things to do. Choteau is located near Glacier National Park and is right on the Rocky Mountain Front. Great Falls is the nearest city. The school enjoys the support of a committed school board and constituent church.
